

ANDREW MICAH MUSIC

HOW SWEET IS YOUR PRAISE

words and music by Andrew C. Romanowitz (Andrew Micah)

INTRO

F

VERSE ONE

F C Dm7 Bbsus2
I lift my hands in the place where Your glory dwells
F C Dm7
The house You're building from living stones
Bbsus2 F C
Oh God, You keep
Dm7 Bbsus2
from Your children no perfect thing
F C Dm7
The best is Jesus, to Him I sing

CHORUS 1

Bbsus2 F C Dm7
How sweet is the King who is worthy
Bbsus2 F C
How sweet is Your praise
Bbsus2 F C Dm7
One day in my Jesus is better
Bbsus2 F C
Than thou-sands a-way
Bbsus2 F C
O - oh, how sweet is Your praise

VERSE TWO

F C
How sweet, how sweet
Dm7 Bbsus2
Is the place where Your glory dwells
F C Dm7
My soul longs for Him, my flesh cries out
Bbsus2 F C Dm7 Bbsus2
In Christ a-live, all I ask is to hold the door
F C Dm7 Bbsus2
To lead the thir-sting into Your courts, o-oh

KEY: F | BPM: 80 | TIME: 4/4

BRIDGE

F C Dm7
Take my life and let it be
Bbsus2 F C
Lost and wasted at Your feet
F C Dm7
Take my moments, all my days
Bbsus2 C F
Let them flow in cease-less praise

F C Dm7

Take my life and let it be
Bbsus2 F C
Lost and wasted at Your feet
F C Dm7
Take my moments, all my days
Bbsus2 C Dm7
Let them flow in cease-less praise
Bbsus2 C F
Oh, let them flow in cease-less praise

CHORUS 2

Bbsus2 F C Dm7
How sweet is the King who is worthy
Bbsus2 F C
How sweet is Your praise
Bbsus2 F C Dm7
I'd sing of Your kind-ness and mer-cy
Bbsus2 F C
For ten thousand days

(end with CHORUS 1)