

OCEANS DEEP (ALL YOUR WAVES)

KEY: E | BPM: 78 | TIME: 4/4

words and music by Andrew C. Romanowitz (Andrew Micah)

INTRO

| E | E | C#m | A B |

VERSE ONE

E                      A                      E
The lights in hea-ven hid their fa-ces
C#m                      A                      E
And terror turned upon the Son
C#m7                      Asus2                      E
When it pleased my God to crush Him
                    A                      B                      E
With the weight of what I'd done

VERSE TWO

(E)                      A                      E
Of His grief and of His trou-ble
C#m                      A                      E
All the a-ges had their fill
C#m7                      Asus2                      E
And in a mo - ment my re-demp-tion
                    A                      B                      E
It was won by His good will

CHORUS

A                      B
How deep, how wide
                    E                      A
How strong beyond all know-ing
                    E
Is the heart of Je-sus
                    A                      B
How deep, how wide
                    C#m                      B                      A
How strong be-yond all know-ing
                    B                      E
Is the heart of God

VERSE THREE

(E)                      A                      E
How could all His thoughts be toward me
C#m                      A                      E
When I turn from His good way
C#m7                      Asus2                      E
But by His blood this law is writ-ten
                    A                      B                      E
That grace a-lone comes af-ter me

BRIDGE

A                      E
Oceans deep, waters wide,
                    C#m                      A
Breakers fall on every side
                    C#m7
You have thrown me in
                    Bsus4                      A
The sea of Your great love
                    E                      A
Winds rise up, thunders roar
                    C#m                      A
All Your waves are so much more
                    C#m7
I am shel-tered in
                    Bsus4                      A
The storm of Your great love

VERSE FOUR

E                      A                      E
In the heart of God my Fa-ther
C#m                      A                      E
Are there e-verlasting scars
C#m7                      Asus2                      E
For the Son that was for-sa-ken
                    A                      B                      E
All to bring us to His arms
